General Information:

This privacy policy outlines how SightBridge Hub, operating as SightBridge LTD., located at “Mercieca”, Suite 4, Triq it Tabib Anton Tabone, Victoria, Gozo, VCT 9020, Malta ("we," "us," or "our") handles your personal data when you visit our website. "Personal data" refers to information that can identify you. For detailed information about data protection, please refer to our Data Protection Declaration included below.

Data Recording on This Website:

Controller Information:

The data on this website is processed by SightBridge LTD., the operator of the website. You can find our contact information in this website.

Data Collection:

We collect your data when you share it with us, such as through our contact or partnership enquiry forms. Additionally, technical information (e.g., web browser, operating system, and access time) may be automatically recorded when you visit our website.

Purposes of Data Use:

Some data is collected to ensure the error-free provision of the website, while other data may be used for analysing user patterns.

Rights:

You have rights regarding your personal data. You can request information about your data, its source, recipients, and purposes. You can also request data rectification or erasure, and you have the right to revoke your consent for data processing. Additionally, you can demand data processing restrictions and file a complaint with the competent supervising agency.

Contact Us:

If you have any questions about data protection or related matters, please contact us at the address provided in this website.

Analysis Tools and Third-Party Tools:

Statistical Analysis:

We may use statistical analysis tools to analyse your browsing patterns on this website.

2. Hosting and Content Delivery Networks (CDN)

External Hosting:

This website is hosted by an external service provider. Personal data collected on this website may include IP addresses, contact requests, metadata, communications, contract information, contact information, names, web page access, and other data generated through the website. This hosting serves to fulfil our contractual obligations and ensures secure, fast, and efficient online services.

3. General Information and Mandatory Information:

Data Protection:

We take the protection of your personal data seriously and handle it in compliance with applicable data protection regulations and this Data Protection Declaration. While we strive to protect your data, please note that data transmission over the Internet may have security gaps.

Controller Information:

The data processing controller on this website is:

SightBridge LTD.

“Mercieca”, Suite 4,

Triq it Tabib Anton Tabone,

Victoria, Gozo, VCT 9020, Malta

Storage Duration:

We will retain your personal data as long as necessary for the purpose for which it was collected. If you request data deletion or revoke your consent, we will delete your data unless there are legally permissible reasons for storage.

Data Transfer to the USA:

Some tools we use are from US-based companies. Data may be transferred to the US servers of these companies. Please be aware that the USA is not considered a safe third country under EU data protection law, and US authorities may access and process data on US servers.

Revocation of Consent:

You can revoke your consent for data processing at any time. Revocation does not affect the legality of processing prior to your revocation.

Right to Object:

You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data under certain circumstances. This also applies to direct advertising.

Right to Data Portability:

You can request that we provide your data in a machine-readable format or transfer it to another controller, where technically feasible.

SSL/TLS Encryption:

We use SSL/TLS encryption to protect data transmission on our website.

Information, Rectification, Eradication:

You have the right to request information about your personal data, request rectification or erasure of your data, and demand processing restrictions. For any questions or requests related to personal data, please contact us at the provided address.

4. Recording of Data on This Website:

Cookies:

We use cookies on our website. They may be session cookies or permanent cookies. Some cookies are essential for website functions, while others help analyse user patterns or display promotional messages. You can configure your browser to accept or reject cookies.

Cookie Consent:

We use the Borlabs cookie consent technology to obtain your consent for certain cookies. Details can be found in our separate cookie policy.

Contact Form:

When you submit inquiries via our contact form, we store the provided information to handle your inquiry. We won't share this information without your consent.

5. Analysis Tools and Advertising:

Google Analytics:

We use Google Analytics to analyse website visitor behaviour. Google may collect various user data and create user profiles.

We use this tool for optimization and advertising purposes. Data transmission to the US is based on EU Standard Contractual Clauses.

IP Anonymization:

We activate IP anonymization on our website to protect your privacy.

Browser Plug-In:

You can prevent Google Analytics from recording your data by using a browser plug-in.

Demographic Parameters:

We may use Google Analytics' demographic characteristics function to display relevant ads within the Google advertising network.

Archiving Period:

Google will anonymize or delete user-level data linked to cookies, user IDs, or advertising IDs after 50 months.
